

CHECKPOINT : Book 3 lesson 4

1. Nommer les pièces :

2. Nommer le mobilier :

3. Maintenant décris cette maison comme si c'était la tienne avec des détails et des adjectifs :

4. There is/ there are/there isn't/there aren't ? Complète :
 In my bedroom, _____ a beautiful carpet and _____ two bedside tables. _____ a desk but _____ a computer. _____
 _____ any posters because my parents don't want to but _____ some photos of my best friends.
5. Some/any/a/an ? Complète :
- There is _____ water in the fridge.
 - There aren't _____ balls in my bag !
 - There's _____ animal in their house.
 - Are there _____ crocodiles in the river?
 - Do you want _____ cheese?
6. Tu vas en vacances en Angleterre et tes parents te demandent de poser les questions pour la maison de vacances qu'ils ont loué. Rédige les questions à l'aide des réponses du propriétaire.
- _____
- Yes, there is a small front garden and a big back garden.
- _____
- No, there aren't any flowers.
- _____
- There are 4 bedrooms, one downstairs and three upstairs.
- _____
- There's only one bathroom.
- _____
- No, there isn't but there is a shower!

CORRECTION

Exercice 3 :

In my house, there is a kitchen with a table and two chairs. There are three cupboards. There is a large living-room with a new sofa, two armchairs and a table. There are two bathrooms, one upstairs and one downstairs but there isn't a shower. On the first floor, there are two bedrooms with double beds and a playroom too. There is a beautiful front garden with flowers.

Exercice 4 :

In my bedroom, there is a beautiful carpet and there are two bedside tables. There is a desk but there isn't a computer. There aren't any posters because my parents don't want to but there are some photos of my best friends.

Exercice 5 :

a. There is some water in the fridge. b. There aren't any balls in my bag. c. There's an animal in their house. d. Are there any crocodiles in the river? e. Do you want some cheese?

Rappel :

On utilise SOME lorsque l'on sait qu'il y a une quantité non précisée de quelque chose
 On utilise ANY quand on ne sait pas s'il y a une quantité non précisée ou s'il n'y en a pas du tout.

Exercice 6 :

Is there a garden?
 Are there any flowers?
 How many bedrooms are there?
 How many bathrooms are there?
 Is there a bath?